

The Departments of Geography and
Theatre Present

SUGAR

by Robbie McCauley

A work-in-progress solo performance that examines her struggle and survival with diabetes as connected to slavery, work, romance and food.

January 13 - 14, 8 pm

Roy Bowen Theatre

Drake Performance and Event Center

1849 Cannon Drive

General Admission Tickets - $10, Student Discount - $5

Before each performance, Marie Cieri (Geography) will discuss McCauley's previous theatre work dealing with race and class relations in the US.

Co-sponsored by the Multicultural Center and Its Collaborative Partners, Hispanic Student Services and Women Student Services, within the Multicultural Center; The Department of Art Visitors Series with the Living Culture Initiative; The College of the Arts; The Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity; Latino/a Studies; and Colleges of the Arts and Sciences

Contact the University Theatre Box Office at 292-2295 or theatre-tix@osu.edu

Also available at the Wexner Center and all TICKETMASTER outlets.

<http://theatre.osu.edu>